

BIO – DIANE SHURLAND – GENERAL COUNSEL
LIAT AIRLINES

---

Diane Shurland is an Attorney and a Solicitor admitted to practice in Barbados, Trinidad, Tobago, Antigua, Barbuda and England and Wales.

She has practiced law since 1989 in many Caribbean territories and in London.

She was educated in France and in London. She holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration with a specialty in Aviation from the Toulouse Business School and a Master's Degree in Law with Corporate and Commercial specialization from the London School of Economics and Political Science (L.S.E.). She also holds a Bachelor of Laws Degree (Hons) from the University of the West Indies Cave Hill Campus and a Legal Education Certificate (L.E.C.) from the Hugh Wooding Law School Trinidad.

She is certified by the UK Civil Aviation Authority as an Accountable Manager and deputises for the Chief Executive Officer of the Airline when she is away from the business. She has over a decade of experience at the executive management level of the Airline and has been a lead in several transformative projects including the Airline's bold refueling of its aircraft fleet from its DHC 100 and 300 aircraft to new ATR -600 series aircraft over a two-year period. Her role also encompasses business development in the pursuit of the objectives of the transforming airline.

As the Airline's Director of Legal Affairs (General Counsel) and corporate secretary she has continued her specialization in broader aspects of aviation law and management through aircraft trading, acquisition, financing and aviation commercial contracts. She advises on all areas of aviation law, contract and industrial matters.
